Explorean Kohunlich,
More Accessible with
MAYAir's New Route:
Cancun–Chetumal

Nature and adventure enthusiasts seeking an authentic experience in the heart of the Mexican jungle can now access the Explorean Kohunlich all-inclusive resort even faster with MAYAir's new flight from Cancun to Chetumal, the capital of Quintana Roo. Travelers are invited to a unique 40-room resort paradise that provides an intimate experience with nature, as well as an opportunity to visit nearby ancient archeological Mayan sites, partake in daily adventures such as kayaking in the Bacalar lagoon, hike or bike in the jungle, and more. Visitors can now access Chetumal in less than an hour from the Cancun International Airport, which receives millions of passengers every year, and services major international and charter airlines that have daily direct and connecting flights to the city. This new route operates on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, further unifying the capital of Quintana Roo with Cancun, the country's most important tourism destination.

New Year,
New Look

Fiesta Americana Condesa Cancun All Inclusive Resort kicks off the year anew. Conserving its authentic Mexican hospitality and traditions, this property has renovated over 500 premium rooms and suites with numerous upgrades. Enhancements include new décor using local materials such as conchuela made from compacted marine shell, which maintains a room's cool temperature; wooden furniture; new electronic, locking doors with proximity key; hurricane shock-proofed windows; updated rainfall-style showers; upgraded USB plugs; and faster Wi-Fi connection.

Renovations also encompass common areas such as seven new guest elevators, modern indoor gardens, and restored wooden balconies and corridors to provide guests and visitors with a refreshed experience while moving about the property.

For the second phase, Kambu and Kalmia restaurants will experience renovations with expanded seating areas to accommodate 80 more seats, new buffet lines and updated furniture. The property's signature eatery, Mexicano, will also experience a major transformation, converting from an outdoor to an indoor venue. Phase one of the renovations is expected to be completed by April 2017 and phase two will begin shortly after.

Francisco Javier
Muñoz Moreno's
Recipe for Success

Live Aqua Boutique Resort Playa del Carmen's Francisco Javier Muñoz Moreno has been featured in Mexico's Playacar magazine as one of the most talented pastry chefs in the Riviera Maya. In the piece, Muñoz mentions how his passion for baking began by watching his grandmother Nana create sweet delicacies as he studied her technique and dreamt of the day he could become a pâtissier himself. Inspired by mentors including chefs Paulina Abascal, Luis Robledo, Alan Espinoza, Fidel Baeza and Bladimir Moreno, Muñoz moved from Aguascalientes to Playa del Carmen five years ago to delight guests at Live Aqua Boutique Resort Playa del Carmen with his sweet temptations. He dreams about having his own pastry shop one day and to follow the steps of Mexico's prominent pastry artists.
